Why I Believe In The Resurrection

BY TAYLOR C. SMITH
Associate Prof. of N. T.
Interpretation
Southern Baptist Theol.
Seminary
Louisville 6, Ky.

Three reasons for believing in the resurrection are the New Testament, the Christian church, and personal experience.

I believe in the resurrection of Jesus because of the New Testament itself. By this I do not mean just the evidence found in the New Testament verifying the re-

Southern Baptists Plan Multi-Million Radio, TV Program

NEW YORK — (RNS) — The Southern Baptist Convention is launching a multi-million dollar program to reach 65,000,000 unchurched Americans through radio and television, a Convention official announced here.

The long-range program calls for:

Immediate extension of the Baptist Hour radio program into five new metropolitan areas, including New York, having a potential listening audience of 51,000,000.

Filming of a series of half-hour color television programs.

Distribution of pre-tested scripts to 30,000 Southern Baptist churches for presentation of live religious telecasts on local stations.

Construction of a $200,000 Radio-Television City at Fort Worth Tex.

Further extension of the Baptist Hour program into additional communities at a later date.

The five-point project was described at a press conference here by the Rev. Paul M. Stevens, director of the Convention's Radio and Television Commission.

The Commission now has its headquarters at Atlanta, Ga. It will move to rented quarters in Fort Worth early this summer to supervise construction of its Radio-Television City.

When the new center is complete, it will provide office space for the commission as well as professionally-equipped studios for production of filmed TV and recorded radio programs. The estimated $200,000 cost is exclusive of equipment and furnishings.

Nine Soviet Baptist Leaders Expected At World Congress

WASHINGTON, D.C. (RNS) Nine Baptist leaders from the Soviet Union and one from communist Hungary are expected to attend the 50th anniversary meeting of the Baptist World Alliance at London, Eng., July 16-22, Dr. Arnold T. Ohrn, general secretary, said here.

Applications from the ten have been received in London and their papers appear to be in order, he said, so there should be no hitch to their being permitted to participate in the meeting.

Dr. Ohrn noted that although there are sizeable Baptist groups in Czechoslovakia no delegate is expected from that country.

Boston Congregation Shocked By Pastor's Sermon, Resignation

(17th Century Press)

BOSTON, April 2, 1631 — (BP) — Roger Williams, fiery Puritan minister of the Boston church, fired a broadside at the local congregation and government from his pulpit yesterday and then submitted his resignation.

Williams did not escape unscathed, however. In a return volley Bostonians labeled his scorching sermon as "a most foully scandalous and treasonable attack on our holy institutions."

The Puritan minister condemned the Boston church for maintaining a connection with the Church of England, which Williams bitterly fought before he was forced to flee to America to escape persecution.

"I dare not officiate to a congregation not separated from the church of England," the preacher declared as he tendered his resignation. "I must keep my soul undefiled."

Williams long ago separated from the church of England renouncing its authority and practice in open defiance of law. It was for this outspoken opposition that the Bishop of (Continued on Page 2)

Pastors', Missionaries' And Laymen's Assemblies Declared Successful

The pastors' and Missionaries' meeting, held jointly, Monday through Friday noon, registered a total of 138 with 59 associations represented.

Meeting during the week also was the clinic for associational clerks, under direction of Rev. J. L. Boyd of Clinton,

One hundred forty-seven laymen, coming from every section of the state, registered for the State Brotherhood Encampment, under direction of W. R. Roberts, state Brotherhood secretary.

The assemblies were all held at Camp Garaywa and were held this year in April for the first time, much earlier than usual.

Policy Change Committee Would Modify Reporting

(By the Baptist Press)

Some reports to the Southern Baptist Convention by its agencies and institutions will be handled differently in the future if certain recommendations are approved by the Convention at Miami, Fla., in May.

The Committee on Procedure for Policy Change, headed by S. H. Jones, editor of the Baptist Courier, South Carolina paper, will present two recommendations for consideration.

Jones' committee declared that it wants to give messengers to the Convention ample information and time to study matters of Convention business.

Under the first recommendation, motions or resolutions presented to the Convention which have not first been included in a printed report will have to be referred to a Convention committee for further study.

The second requires agencies and institutions to submit for publication at least sixty days before the Convention session certain policy and finance matters. These would be published in denominational papers.

Included in the requirement for sixty days advance notice will be any matters for Conven- (Continued on Page 2)

London signed a warrant for Williams' arrest, forcing the Puritan to flee to America.

"The individual conscience must be free before God," Williams said in his explosive message. "The first four Commandments are private and spiritual, and the government has no right to enforce obedience to them."

"When the government exceeds its rightful bounds, then it, too, is a sinner."

In a statement defending their position against the public attack of the minister, local government officials said, "We are the custodians of the truth. This settlement was made by God's people for the establishment of a true religion from the tyrannies of England and English bishops."

"The truth must be protected by force of law from every encroachment of error. There must not be the slightest deviation from the truth which we believe and which we have established on these shores."

"The Lord Brethren of New England are defining the truth to suit themselves," Williams said in answer to the statement.

Both church and government officials were bewildered by Williams' action. His courageous stand for religious liberty in England won the admiration of many, and he was eagerly sought for the Boston pastorate because of his staunch Puritanism.

But clergy and political leaders likewise agreed that the radical views expressed by Williams in his sermon yesterday would destroy the state if put into practice.

Mindanao, where they expect to settle down—except for home leaves—for the rest of their working lives.

Their work will be primarily in public health "of a personal nature, mixing it in with the Christian message and the Gospel message," Dr. Robert Dorrough said. He is 29 and his wife is 31.

Dr. Baker James Cauthen, executive secretary, told the board that foreign mission contributions from the more than 8,000,000 members in 30,000 Southern Baptist churches in 22 states amounted to over $10,000,000 during 1954.

Among the new missionaries appointed were Rev. and Mrs. Glandon D. Gober of Princeton, Ky. Mr. Gober is a native of Mississippi.

is authoritative, but the experience of the Christian community that gave rise to the New Testament. There would have been no New Testament if there had not been a resurrection. It is through the resurrection that Jesus is defined as Lord. Through this event he was equated in the eyes of the disciples with God of the Old Testament. This is the distinctive teaching of the early Christians.

The confession that Jesus is Lord is that which separates the Christians from the Jews. The spearhead of the message of the early church was that God had raised the crucified Jesus. This changed them from disappointed men into fearless evangelists.

I also believe in the resurrection of Jesus because if he had not been raised there would have been no Christian church. The Christian church, which takes the place of the Jewish community, could not be founded on a Messiah who was merely the Son of David and one who was crucified. It has to be founded on one who was also designated as Son of God with power through the resurrection.

Finally, but by no means the least reason why I believe in the resurrection is the experience which I have had with the risen Jesus whom I have confessed as Lord by that experience. Christ lives in me which for me is a valid confirmation of the fact that he is risen. Jesus lived on the earth over 1900 years ago but he is also living in and with us today to confirm our belief in the resurrection.

The committee also will make a suggestion to the Convention that it abide by a bylaw providing that "one-third of the time for discussion of all reports before the Convention shall be reserved for discussion from the floor."

This bylaw in the past has not always been obeyed but should be carefully observed in the future, the committee added:

Mother

"They say that man is mighty,
He governs land and sea,
He wields a mighty scepter,
O'er lesser powers that be;
But a mightier power and stronger
Man from his throne has hurled,
For the hand that rocks the cradle
Is the hand that rules the world."
—William Ross Wallace

How can we find the words to describe our love for Mother? An abundance of over-sentimental terms does not truly express the great depth of our feeling for her. As we remember the things she has done for us, the atmosphere of love and happiness she has created at home through the years, we feel a deep sense of love for her and appreciation for the dreary tasks and loving acts she has performed unselfishly and uncomplainingly. (And so often her family has not given her enough credit and appreciation for her work).

She has devoted her life to her family, her daily duties, her church, and her Lord.

She has washed and ironed and tended the chickens and the garden. Like her mother before her she really believes that "cleanliness is godliness." She has cooked our favorite pies (and usually without the use of a cook book), and "sewed many a fine seam" that her daughters might have new dresses. And the times have not been few that she has done without a new dress so that one of her children might have something new. She has kept the house bright with flowers—zinnias, marigold, gladiolas, larkspur.

Hospitable, friendly, gracious, kind, she has always been ready to lend—and to give—to the neighbors. A faithful member of the W. M. U., she is a strong believer in world missions, and that belief bears immediate fruit in the community about her.

She shared our joy when we had our first date. She shared our disappointment when we lost in some school contest or shared our triumph when we won. She was proud when we were a success, but did not desert us when we were a failure. She has encouraged us when we were discouraged. She was always up early "to get the children off to school." She worked and sacrificed that they might finish college.

When there were heartaches she has comforted us with a tender, understanding heart. Her eyes full of love and her sweet smile have helped to drive away our cares.

And yet when we were in the wrong and needed discipline she has not failed to point out to us that we were wrong.

She has helped with decisions. Always when we couldn't decide we'd say, "Well, I'll wait and ask Mama."

She looked after us when we were sick. There was the time we swallowed a rock. She shook us, head downwards, to dislodge the rock from the throat. And there was the time we were near death and she prayed. And the Lord heard and answered her prayer of faith.

She has set a good example by her Christian living, by her prayer and Bible reading, and by taking her children to Sunday School and church. The children in her Primary Sunday School class have always loved her. By her example and influence she helped lead her children to Christ as their Saviour.

"God sent the birds and sunshine
To gladden all the world
He sent the foliage and flowers
In radiance unfurled:
He sent the June, the stars, the moon,
The pearly dewdrops sweet
And then He sent the mothers
To make it all complete."

"... Freely Give"

Jesus healed the man with the withered hand. He healed a woman who had been sick for 18 years. He healed many lepers. He made the lame to walk again, and the blind to see. Yet He not only healed physically, but also brought spiritual healing to those who had faith in Him.

Jesus said to his disciples, "Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils; freely ye have received, freely give."

Jesus said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Our Baptist hospitals seek to minister spiritually as well as physically to the sick in body and soul. Many times a period of hospitalization has been the turning point in a person's life because some hospital attendant has led him to Christ.

The Mississippi Baptist Hospital in Jackson administers to the needs of suffering humanity. It treats many who are financially unable to pay. It could do more charity work if more funds were available. A hospital cannot give free service unless friends of the hospital make offerings for that purpose.

The Last Call

Most churches have already planned to send their pastors to the Southern Baptist Convention in Miami, Florida. If any have overlooked it we urge that they do so at once. It will help the pastor. It will help the church.

It will be a wise kingdom investment for any church to make.

If this item was overlooked in making the budget we strongly urge the deacons, or other leaders, to take steps right away to send the pastor to Miami,

If possible, their wives should also go to attend the WMU Convention while the pastors attend the pastors' conference preceding the convention proper which opens on Wednesday.
—BR—

A Good Investment

It is time now for any churches that have failed to do so previously to make plans to send their Sunday School Superintendent and Training Union Director to Ridgecrest or Glorieta.

Ridgecrest or Glorieta will give them something worth more than mere dollars. Its information and inspiration will greatly increase the value of your Sunday School Superintendent or Training Union Director. If they are worth anything they are worth the small cost.

HEART TROUBLE

Money used for such a trip will be money well-spent.

Business organizations find it worthwhile to send their workers to conferences and training schools. They do this because they find that it increases the efficiency of their workers and they get their money back many times. Baptist churches should do likewise.

Our Readers WriteSPIRITUAL GROWTH

Too many people are babes in Christ. They may be growing physically, mentally, or socially. Spiritual growth requires some effort, some sacrifice and some self-denial. Love for Christ is fundamental. To be more Christ-like, observe these rules:

1. Read and study your Bible daily and pray.

2. Be in your pew on Sunday, Wednesday night for prayer service, and all other services you can attend.

3. Help somebody every day. Give to the world the best you have and the best will come back to you.

4. Stay busy for God. We must keep tugging for that which is higher, better, and more noble.

5. Put first things first. Material gains, social popularity, worldly pleasures must be subordinated to our love for Christ.

6. Make sure that jealousy, backbiting, and revenge have no part in your life.

7. Use what talent you have for God.

8. Contribute of your means to God's cause.

9. Take care of your body. Great spirits abide in great bodies.

10. Practice forgiveness.

11. Trust God and let the world know where you stand.

12. Resist temptation, put on the whole armor of God that ye may be able to withstand the wiles of the devil. Watch your company or associates.

13. Do not indulge in gossip. The fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace. Jesus is our example. He grew in stature and in favor with God and man.

Counselor's Corner

By DR. R. LOFTON HUDSON

Dr. Hudson, pastor of Wornall Road Baptist Church, Kansas City, Missouri is author of "The Religion of a Mature Person" and "The Religion of a Sound Mind" for the Baptist Record.

Our Young People

Question: Our pastor takes our young people out for a good time. He seems to think that all they need is to play. What they do is not so bad, I guess, but a lot of us older ones who are paying the bills don't believe in it.

Do you think that Jesus meant for people to have a good time?

Answer: I certainly do. I am reminded of the editor who was asked if he believed Jesus ever laughed. He said, "I don't know whether or not He did, but He fixed me up so that I could."

You older people in your church ought to re-examine your position. You played when you were young. And if you play more now there would be fewer doctor bills to pay. Playing is a part of life, as well as praying.

The church is in a pretty sorry position when it criticizes young people for the wrong kind of recreation and offers them no substitutes.

You must have a fine pastor. Most pastors get so busy about strictly spiritual matters that they neglect the well-rounded life. A strong church must funnel many of life's activities through its program.

For heaven's sake, do not take sides with some sour-pusses in the church. There are some kill-joys in every congregation. Back your pastor and trust him to lead your young people.

Accidents and illness have no respect for a person's wealth or age.

We never know when or where they will strike but we do know that our hospitals stand ready to serve us when we need medical care.

Last year our hospitals . . . Baptist hospital in Jackson, Mississippi and Baptist Memorial in Memphis, Tennessee . . . spent a total of $501,148 in providing care for charity patients who needed hospital treatment but could not pay their way.

Hundreds of others will need hospital care this year. Not only will they receive the treatment they need but they will find, also, spiritual comfort in these institutions which are founded on Christian principles.

Only through our hospitals can we accomplish that two-fold mission to "Heal the sick . . . and say unto them, the Kingdom of God is come nigh unto you."

Whereas; on April 1, our devoted brother, faithful, friend, and loyal servant Homer M. Columbus

We recently visited Columbus to speak to the monthly meeting of the County Training Union, but as the meeting had been called off we had some extra time to use otherwise. It seems that a lot of folks were absent, but we did find out a few facts about the progress being made at First Church, where Dr. S. R. Woodson is the pastor.

Attendance for the past few months at the Sunday School, Training Union, Brotherhood, and W. M. U. have been at an all-time high. The same is true of gifts, which means more for missions.

According to Dr. Woodson, the Brotherhood is planning to "pack" the auditorium Sunday night, May 1.

Because of the outstanding record of the First Church Brotherhood, Dr. Woodson has been asked to speak at the Southern Baptist Convention during the Brotherhood Report on Friday night, on the subject "What the Brotherhood of My Church has Meant to My Ministry."

Record readers in Lowndes County are now listed as follows: Artesia, 17; BORDER SPRINGS, 36; Caledonia, 2; CALVARY, 107; COLUMBUS, FIRST, 684; COLUMBUS, EAST END, 161; McBee, 8; Mayhew, 16; MT. IS WORK LIKE BSU IMPORTANT?

... the times in which we live require that we give special attention to the education and development of those few individuals upon whom we depend for leadership. We particularly need spiritual leaders, a handful of men and women who live at the height of the Christian Gospel in all its concrete fullness.

Durant, First, Opens Mission In Delapidated Shack

One looks like an ordinary shack and the other like an ordinary house, and at one time they were both just that until the Durant First, with the guidance of the Lord and unending devotion of its brotherhood, extended a helping hand and started a mission in an almost forgotten section of Durant.

The first Sunday school meeting drew a total attendance of four people, but the small number didn't delay the efforts of such devoted Christians as Paul (Hobo) Aldy, and Bill Wiggleby, both members of the First Church. They continued to strive and at one meeting in the extremely small shack they managed to pack 50 people.

The Church then bought the better house and have since been remodeling it. The men of the brotherhood have given much of their time to its development in that respect and also in the holding of weekly prayer meetings.

The Mission now has a regular prayer meeting on Thursday and Sunday school on Sundays. They also have worship services bi-weekly conducted by Rev. Virgil L. McBride, who is a student at Mississippi College.

Rev. C. M. Day is the pastor at Durant, First.

Cruger Sets Record

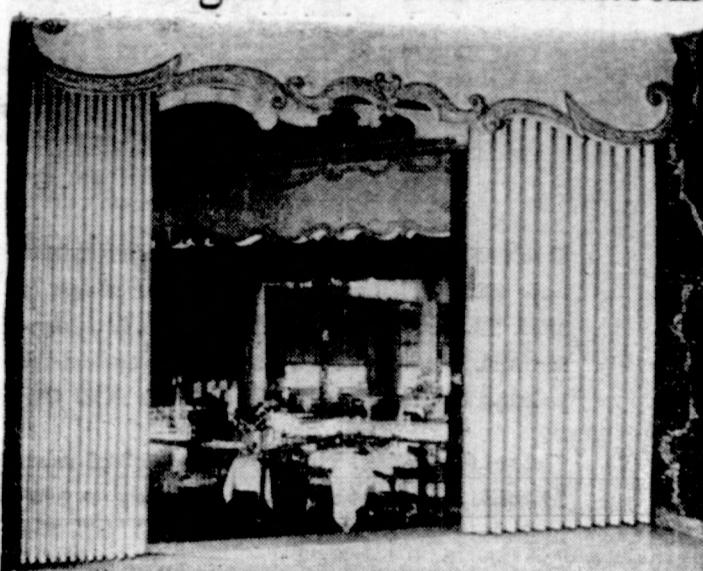

April 17 was truly a great day in the history of the Cruger Church. In the Sunday School, a goal of 65 had been set, and when final records were checked, there were 98 present in the Sunday School. The Training Union had 57 present, which too, set an all-time high.

These attendance records were only a climax, however, to a youthled week-end revival in which Rev. Paul Brown, pastor of Anchor Church near Oxford did the preaching. Mr. Brown made several chalk-drawings during this revival, and one of the most impressive was his own interpretation of the Cross of Christ.

Glenn Wiggins of Sidon, Mississippi, lead the song services.

The Cruger community has been greatly enriched by these services and we are indebted to our pastor, Rev. Robert Foy, for his untiring efforts to promote this revival. Under the leadership of Rev. Robert Foy, pastor, the church has grown from half-time to full, a Pastor's home (which is debt-free) has been purchased, and all phases of the Lord's work have grown in attendance and interest.

A sturdy steel cabinet with eight crystal-clear, "See-Thru" drawers will answer many small-parts storage needs, according to General Industrial Co. who are introducing it. The transparent plastic drawers enable the user to spot, at a glance, the drawer in which the desired parts are stored. Adjustable crosswise and lengthwise dividers make it possible to set up various sized compartments in the drawers which are 5-7/8 inch L x 2-3/4 inches W x 1-7/16 inch D, and to establish a really efficient method of "filing" small parts. The drawers have a safety catch so that they cannot be accidentally withdrawn. It is priced at just $4.25 postpaid.

PARKWAY GRADES AND GROWS

Until October of last year Parkview Baptist Church considered itself as having a good record if they averaged as much as 80 for the month. But since the beginning of October, according to Mr. Travis Lacy, Training Union Director, to go below a 100 average is the exception rather than the rule.

Why the change?

It's all to be explained, says Director Lacy, by the fact that we graded our adults—and he proudly points to the record to substantiate his claim that "it works". Any problems? Of course! But what worth doing doesn't require facing problems. Rev. W. Lowrey Compere, president of Clarke Memorial College was pastor at the time the "new work" in Parkview's Training Union was taking place.

NOXUBEE CENTRAL SCHOOL

A Central Leadership School was recently conducted in Noxubee Association under the leadership of Mr. R. S. McCrary, Associational Training Union Director. There were sixty-nine enrolled in the school with an average attendance of 40 for the week. Six of the twelve churches of the association were represented in the school.

The following churches were represented during the week of study: Concord, Deerbrook, Elon, Shuqualak, Brooksville, and First Baptist, Macon.

Members of the faculty were as follows: Adults and Young People, Mr. G. G. Pierce; Intermediates, Rev. John Atchley, pastor of Elon and Deerbrook churches; Mrs. Robert Powell, Juniors; Junior and Intermediate leaders, Miss Neta Stewart, Jackson; Nursery, Beginner, Primary leaders, Miss Evelyn George, Jackson. An activity period was provided for the children under nine years of age. Rev. R. D. Pearson of First Baptist Macon, was host pastor and Mr. John Gates, Training Union Director.

Kemper Association

Dekalb Church of Kemper Association recently engaged in an enlargement campaign under the leadership of its pastor, Rev. Barney Leposser. Center Ridge Church also had representatives at the meeting for methods study each night. Dekalb Church had 45 in attendance for the week and Center Ridge had 7. Five new workers were enlisted during the week, and several Adults were enlisted for the Adult Union of Dekalb Church. Tentative arrangements were made for the expansion of the Nursery-Beginner Department.

There were 35 in attendance in Training Union at Dekalb on the Sunday night preceding the campaign with a goal of 70 set for the following Sunday night. Mrs. Lamar Sledge was enlisted to serve as Training Union Director.

Miss Louise Hill directed the campaign and taught the Junior and Intermediate leaders. Mrs. J. C. Greenoe of Vicksburg taught the Young People and Adults. Rev. Leposser taught the Intermediates and Mrs. Leposser taught the Juniors.

Resigns At Durant

Rev. C. M. Day

Rev. C. M. Day, pastor First Church, Durant, for 10 years, has resigned that post to become associate executive secretary of the Mississippi Church Council for Alcohol Education, with headquarters in Jackson.

The church at Durant has made considerable progress.

There have been 613 additions, about half on profession of faith. The Sunday School increased from 288 enrolled to 555 in actual attendance. Training Union from 108 to 181, and W. M. U. enrollment from 30 to 225.

The Cooperative Program showed the following gains: $1,645.65 in 1945 to $7040.00 in 1954.

All mission gifts rose from $2,804.32 in 1945 to $9,539.00 in 1954.

A Saturday night Youth Program has been maintained for 7 years, with speakers both out of state and in state.

There have been ordained five young men to the gospel ministry and many others, both men and women have surrendered to full time Christian service. A full time choir director

Emmanuel, Grenada Adds 45 In Revival

During the Simultaneous revivals, March 27-April 10, the Emmanuel Church, Grenada, experienced one of the greatest revivals in its history.

There were 45 additions to the church, 35 of these coming by baptism. A large number of public rededications were made and many family altars established. Four young people surrendered to full time Christian service.

The pastor, Rev. Harry Kellogg, conducted the revival with R. O. Stone of Tennessee as the musician.

Emmanuel Church will have its fourth anniversary in May. In these four years there have been over 650 additions to the church, 450 of these have followed Christ in baptism.

was employed (part time at present.)

In physical improvements, a pipe organ, a set of carillon bells, carpets, a Prayer Room, and Educational annex, new furniture and many other improvements were made.

The church for several years has been in the upper fifty of the 100 churches making largest contributions in Mississippi.

The Mississippi Church Council for Alcohol Education is supported by the Mississippi Baptist Convention Board, Mississippi Methodist Conference, North Mississippi Methodist Conference, Mississippi Disciples of Christ, Mississippi Synod of Presbyterian Church, U. DID YOU GET YOURS?

Have you gotten your package of free Vacation Bible school promotional material yet? If you have not, write us and we shall be glad to send you one immediately.

There are several important items in this package, but one of the main things is the catalog-order blank. You will need this right away so that you can check over the materials and then make the order.

There is yet plenty of time to get good and ready for an excellent Bible school this summer, but at this time of the year we cannot wait much longer. It is now time to set the date of the school, enlist the workers, order the books, materials, etc., and advertise it. And by all means, get busy training the workers.

This is the only time of the year we can have Vacation Bible schools — vacation time — so we want to make 1955 the greatest year ever, both in the number of schools and also in efficiency.

AND THAT MISSION OFFERING TO WHAT SHALL WE GIVE IT?

There are so many fine features of the Vacation Bible school, and one of them is the Mission offering.

This is the time when the children are taught about some of our mission work and then have the privilege from day to day of giving some of their money to this most worthy part of the whole program.

The question arises, to what shall we give this money?

By all means, give it to the Cooperative Program.

That is the way we largely support all of our work, and it is the finest means we have of teaching the children to give to all causes rather than just a few. This mission teaching and offering in these Vacation schools will go far in preparing our children and boys and girls to be good stewards of their money in the support of all the work that Baptists do, from the local church on out to the ends of the earth.

So, be sure and teach them to give their mission offerings to the Cooperative Program, and thus help them to give to all our work. It affords splendid opportunity to get in some mighty fine teaching and giving.

OUR TWENTY CONFERENCES

We consider the twenty district conferences we hold each spring some of the best promotional work we do.

We have come to the close of another series of such meetings and we are still of the same opinion as we have been about the value and worth of these conferences in the promotion of our work.

We reach nearly all of the Associations, about 300 churches and 1600 officers and teachers. These are the leaders of the work and it is through them that the plans and programs are largely carried through.

We are so grateful to the twenty host churches for their kindness to us in caring for the meeting in such a fine way and for serving the evening meal. They did their part in a wonderful way and we are so grateful to them for all of this.

STANDARDS

A Standard gives us a well balanced diet for a Sunday School. We have Standards for classes, departments, schools, associations. If any of these standards are used by any unit anywhere, all the good things are kept before us all the time. We do not emphasize one or two things and neglect others.

A Standard has been rightly called a program of work. When this program is used, better work is always done. Many classes and departments and schools over our state are using them. We most heartily recommend all the standards for better programs of work in all the churches.

Especially is a standard for an association in our thinking at this time. Last year several associations almost made the grade for standard recognition. Perhaps the grade was not mad because a careful check was not made. One of the duties of the Associational Superintendent of Enlargement is that of promoting the standards for the churches. Please check in your association. You may be closer than you think. If your association's program is geared to the standard as a plan of work, you are certainly headed in the right direction to do mighty effective work in all the churches.

IN MY FATHER'S HOUSE

In my Father's house are many mansions John 14:2
No, not cold beneath the grasses,

Not close-walled within the tomb;

Rather, In my Father's Mansion Living in another room.

Living, like the one who loves me,

Like your child with cheeks abloom,

Out of sight, at desk or school book,

Busy in another room.

Nearer than the youth whom fortune

Beckons where the strange land looms

Just behind the hanging curtain,

SERVING in another room.

Shall I doubt my Father's mercy?

Shall I think of death as doom?

Or the stepping o'er the threshold

To a bigger brighter room?

Shall I blame my Father's wisdom?

Shall I sit enswathed in gloom

When I know my love is happy

WAITING in the other room.

WMU Annual Meeting In Miami
DELEGATES

The By-laws of Woman's Missionary Union have been changed to have the number of delegates from each state based on the membership. In the light of that change, Mississippi WMU will be allowed 74 delegates. The registration at Miami for the WMU Convention will be "first come, first served." The woman in charge of the Mississippi registration table will be instructed to register any woman from Mississippi up to the total allowed. Heretofore we could not have but 60 delegates, so we feel assured that we will have more space than we will delegates. We URGE all of our Mississippi women to register.

You will notice in Royal Service further information about the meeting, which begins Sunday afternoon May 15th.

MARGARET FUND GRADUATE

One of our Mississippi Margaret Fund students, Miss Mary Jacob, will be graduating at Blue Mountain College this spring. A number of our people will want to remember her at that time. Mary is a "36," wears a 9½ stocking and a 16 dress! I am sure some will want to send some remembrance at this time.

Marylu Moore our other Margaret Fund girl is finding her place of service and usefulness on the Blue Mountain campus and some will want to remember her as a "Freshman" finishing that first year and with 3 yet to go! She is a size "32," a 9 stocking and a size 12 dress!

Children's PagePeter Meets A Missionary

By MARY ADKINS

Peter came running into the kitchen. "Mother! May I go skating? May I?"

"You may go, Peter, but remember, we are having company tonight," Mother said as she took the bottle out of baby Linda's mouth.

Peter went over to look at Linda,

"Would you like to hold her, Peter?"

Peter lifted Linda to his shoulder, just the way Mother had done. "She doesn't cry. I guess she likes me. She isn't very heavy, is she? I guess I'm pretty strong."

Mother laughed. "She gets still heavier before she learns to walk, Peter. You may not be anxious to hold her then, for she will wiggle a lot more, too!"

Peter gave Linda back to Mother. "Will she walk soon?"

"Not for a while yet. She has to learn to sit up first, and then to creep."

"Goodness! Babies have to learn almost as much as I do in school."

"Quite a bit at that, Mr. Peter. And now you had better get started before it is time to come home again."

"Who is our company tonight? Is it the missionary?"

"Yes, Mrs. Wagner from Mexico. She will speak to us in church tonight."

"Where is Mexico?"

It is down south of us.

"Don't all missionaries come from Africa? That's what Roger said."

"No, not at all. Every country needs missionaries, even our United States. But enough talking. You had better go skating. Here comes Billy now."

Peter picked up his skates and ran off.

"Be back early, Peter."

Peter did get back early. He had just fed his dog Sandy when in the door came Father and Susan and a lady.

"Hello everybody!" Father looked into the carriage to see Linda. "Guess how we knew our missionary when all the people began getting off the train at once?"

The missionary laughed. "Susan saw me first."

"Yes, Mommy. She carried something. Can you guess?"

"I'll guess an umbrella," said Mother.

Peter thought a minute. "How do you help?"

"Well, Peter, we missionaries help by teaching in the schools and by helping people to get well, or to learn to read their own language."

"You mean not everyone can read?"

"Lots of people never learn. Our most important job is to help the people learn about Jesus. You see, lots of people don't know how to read; but also, lots of people never heard about Jesus. My, but we tell many stories about Jesus."

"I guess it is time for dinner now," said Mother.

"We had better let you eat, Mrs. Wagner," said Peter. "If you tell us the whole story of the people in Mexico, then you won't have anything left to say tonight at church!"

Mrs. Wagner laughed. "We missionaries always have plenty to tell, and we love to tell our story, Peter."

JOASH REPAIRS THE TEMPLE

Bible Text: II. Chronicles 21-24.

I. THE SORRY CONDITION OF THE TEMPLE

For many years the temple had been left with little care. A large number of the stones out of the walls and pavements had been carried away by pilferers to be used for private purposes. During this great period of neglect the building and its furnishings greatly deteriorated just as any building will if neglected, and not simply the building but the sacred vessels—the bowls, the spoons, the forks—all the vessels and instruments employed by the priest and in the ritual of worship had been removed, stolen, no doubt, by thieves.

II. THE CAUSE OF THIS STATE OF NEGLECT

Back of the thieves who purloined the property of the temple, back of the days of neglect which had resulted in the temple's almost ruined condition was the wicked heart of Athalia, the king's mother, daughter of the unspeakable Jezebel.

Athalia had established in Jerusalem the worship of Baal. His idols were all over the place and the country. All the people had been encouraged to pay homage to him. The worship of Jehovah had been correspondingly neglected. Jehovah's altars through the country had been thrown down again, as stout Elijah had found the one upon Mt. Carmel in earlier days.

In view of the character of Athalia this neglected condition of the temple and neglect of worship of the true God was exactly what might have been expected. One needs to remember that Athalia had sought the life of Joash when he was a baby, and that she certainly would have murdered him had it not been that Jehoiada the high priest hid the baby Joash away in the temple and kept him concealed until he attained the age of seven years, after which period Jehoiada planned a revolt.

A mob concealed in the temple precincts suddenly rushed violently forth, threw down the altars of Baal and destroyed the places of Baal worship. The mob also paid characteristic respects to Athalia after which Joash was crowned as king. Jehoiada the high priest was by this course of events, hoisted into high position.

III. THE REAL REFORMER AND HIS LAGGARD HELPERS

Jehoiada's heart had bled continually as he beheld the worship of Jehovah decline and the temple being desecrated and neglected; with the young king grateful to his faithful priest both for his life and for the religious instruction which he had received to give authority to his purpose, Jehoiada beyond doubt suggested the work of repairing the temple to the king.

Here we meet with a puzzling and depressing contrast. The high priest Jehoiada was not the sole priest about the temple but the others did not share his zeal for the welfare for the house of God. In the parallel account of this great work (II Kings 12) these words occur in the sixth verse. "It was so, that in the three and twentieth year of King Joash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house".

Now this is a surprising circumstance. The high priest under the authority of the king had provided the means for the reconstruction and redecoration of the temple but the laggard priest had simply neglected to do the required work. So here we have an example of a leader who could not carry forward his laudable purpose because his followers would not follow.

How many a reformer has failed and even lost his life because the people whom he loved and strove to bless by their neglect deserted him and brought all his noble purposes to naught!

How many a humble, loyal, able pastor has failed in his high purpose for the Lord because of the lethargy of the people who should have followed him and by so doing have adorned the gospel of the Lord and gloriously furthered his kingdom purposes!

Gloomy, terrible, tragedy, that an army should desert its commander on field of battle!

Sad beyond all telling, that a flock should flee from its shepherd into the very lair of a hungry lion, a wolf, a bear!

IV. THE WISE PLAN OF THE BOY KING.

The matter of worship must be left to the voluntary choice of the worshipers. The king might have provided the money necessary for this great work by laying a tax upon the people; but people do not love to be taxed for any purpose and, least of all, for religious purposes. Money forced from people for a religious purpose will be grudgingly and grumbly given.

Joash had recourse to a wiser plan. He had a chest made with a slit in the lid. This chest was set by the main door into the temple and the people passing in and out were invited to place whatever they wished in gifts of money in this chest. This they were to do of course out of the spirit of love for their Lord and a desire to express their love.

We are told that the chest was filled again and again until it came about that there was money sufficient in the temple treasury to repair the temple and to provide other vessels for the temple worship.

Iuka WMU Recognizes Faithful Services Of Mrs. Blanche Brown

Mrs. Blanche Brown

Recently the WMU of Iuka Church presented to Mrs.

V. THE RESULTS OF REPAIRING THE TEMPLE

The first of them was that the heart of the king and the heart of Jehoiada were revived in their plan for this fine accomplishment.

The hearts of the people were made glad everyone in the dropping of his first coin through the slit in the lid of the treasury chest. A greater degree of gladness filled the hearts of king and priest and people as they saw the treasure grow from little to much and from much to more.

Then as the work of restoration made progress the zeal of the people for the Lord grew warmer day by day. There was then at final length the boundless joy of the people as they beheld the completed work. There was a day of joyous celebration to express the joy of the people at the completion of a work for the Lord well done.

VI. A LESSON FOR PRESENT DAY SERVANTS OF THE LORD.

It is written by our brother Paul (II Cor. 9:7,8), "Let each man give according as he has purposed in his heart: not grudgingly, or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver". The gifts that honour God and are pleasing to Him are those given freely.

Blanche Brown a Bible as a token of the W. M. U.'s appreciation of her faithful, devoted, and untiring efforts through the years.

In presenting the Bible to Mrs. Brown, Mrs. George W. Stricklin, President of the W. M. U., said, "It is with a heart full of love, admiration, and gratitude that we present this Bible to you. Our prayer is that you may have many more years to serve with us in W. M. U. work."

Mrs. Stricklin called attention to the many years of loyal, faithful, and efficient service of Mrs. Brown in the W. M. U. work. Mrs. Brown has served as President of the Iuka W. M. U. and also as Associational Superintendent of the W. M. U.

It was also noted that oftentimes before the present educational building was erected that Mrs. Brown would open her own home for the meeting, sometime in the face of difficulties.

At the presentation a poem was read honoring Mrs. Brown which had been composed by Rev. R. B. Patterson, the area missionary.

Rev. Carmon Savell is the Iuka pastor.

Pastor L. P. Trotter reports that the First Church, Hattiesburg, received 42 for baptism during a "two weeks' meeting" in which Rev. W. A. Borum did the preaching.

Here's Why You Should Join Now . . .

WHY WAIT until hospital, medical and surgical care becomes necessary before you are prepared for it?

Would you be able to pay for necessary care if one of your family had to go to the hospital immediately because of illness or accidental injury?

You may be one of the many families that, should the need for hospital care arise, find it difficult to carry the burdensome expense of providing sufficient hospital and medical care.

The best way to be prepared for any unexpected illness or injury is to become a member of Blue Cross-Blue Shield health care plan.

Why delay, if you are eligible for individual or group membership, call or write your Blue Cross-Blue Shield Plan today.

Papers Attack Status Of Catholic Church

BUENOS AIRES — (RNS) — Roman Catholicism's position as Argentina's State Church was attacked by two important pro-government newspapers here.

It was believed the attack might be the first move toward separation of Church and State in Argentina.

The two newspapers, Democracia and La Prensa, normally reflect the administration's thinking. The regime often prepares public opinion for a new step through editorials in their columns.

La Prensa joined Democracia in suggesting a constitutional change eliminating the favored status of the Catholic Church.

A few days earlier, Critica, another pro-government daily, accompanied an attack on the hierarchy with a proposal that Church and State be separated.
